APPENDIX 1 GRANT SCHEDULE – AFFILIATED CLUBS AND SOCIETIES...............................................................69

APPENDIX 2 MODEL CONSTITUTION - AFFILIATED CLUBS AND SOCIETIES......................................................71
SECTION 1  STANDING ORDERS/MEETING PROCEDURES

Section 1.1  Conduct of Meetings

1.1.1  These Regulations are the standing orders and rules of debate for the conduct of meetings of the SUC of the Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology, and for the order of its Office Bearers, Committees and affiliated bodies.

1.1.2  The Agenda of the Council shall be determined by the SUC General Secretary in consultation with the SUC President.

1.1.3  Apologies shall be given in writing to the General Secretary before a SUC meeting and shall give sufficient reason to warrant being excused. The Chairperson may at their discretion accept verbal apologies.

1.1.4  Any duly convened Special Meeting shall deal only with the business arising out of the objects set forth in e notices convening the Special Meeting.

1.1.5  Unless otherwise stated in the Agenda, meetings of the Council shall be convened at 6.00pm.

1.1.6  The General Secretary shall call a ten (10) minute adjournment at least once in every continuous two (2) hour sitting of the Council. Four (4) hours after the appointed starting time of the meeting, if there is still business before the Council, the General Secretary shall put the following procedural motion without debate. The motion shall be won or lost by a simple majority of the Council members that vote. “That this meeting remains convened in order to deal with the business remaining on the agenda.” If the motion is lost the General Secretary shall close the meeting immediately. If won, the motion shall be put again at twenty (30) minute intervals. No new business shall be added to the agenda after the above procedural motion has first been put and carried. Notwithstanding the above sentence no new business shall be added to the agenda after the commencement of the agenda item “General Business”.

Section 1.2  Quorum

Pursuant to Section 6.2.3 of the SUC Constitution the quorum of an ordinary SUC meeting shall be:

1.2.1  One half (1/2) plus one (1) of the total number of voting members of the SUC; and

1.2.2  If the quorum for a SUC meeting is not in attendance thirty (30) minutes after the specified time, then such a meeting shall be not held, and the business for such meeting shall be placed on the agenda for the next SUC meeting.

1.2.3  If the quorum at any SUC meeting lapses, the General Secretary shall close the meeting, and notwithstanding that subsequently a quorum shall reappear, the meeting shall remain closed.

Section 1.3  Agenda

1.3.1  Each meeting of the SUC must include the following items on the agenda:

   a.  attendance
   b.  apologies
   c.  observers
   d.  proxies
   e.  consideration and business arising from previous meeting minutes
f. starring and double starring of items. Starred items are for discussion, double starred items are for earlier consideration on the agenda, and unstarred items are for noting. Any member may request an item to be starred or double starred.

g. financial reports as per article 4.2.1 of these regulations

h. a written report from each student union standing committee, shall be included for noting, unless starred.

i. Motions.

j. other business

1.3.2 The General Secretary shall call for agenda items ten (10) working days prior to the meeting. Items to be included on the agenda must be submitted to the General Secretary seven (7) calendar days prior to the meeting. This includes 1.3.1j. Agenda items shall be numbered and placed before the meeting in the order in which they have been received by the Secretary. Emergency items may be included for consideration at the meeting, and shall be introduced under other business. For items to be considered emergency items, they shall have information that is time sensitive and not have been available when the call for agenda items was made. The General Secretary shall determine if items are emergency items or can be included on the next SUC meeting agenda.

1.3.3 The agenda shall be distributed to all members seven (7) calendar days prior to the meeting. It shall also be posted on SUC noticeboards

Section 1.4: Rules of Debate - Powers & Duties of the General Secretary

1.4.1 Pursuant to 5.1.2 of the Constitution, the General Secretary shall be elected as the general secretary and shall chair all meetings of the SUC.

1.4.2 The General Secretary shall be heard in silence and without interruption; when they rise during debate, all discussion shall cease.

1.4.3 If the General Secretary wishes to enter into debate they shall vacate the Chair and call upon another member of the SUC to act as General Secretary.

1.4.4 Any member desiring to speak shall address their remarks to the General Secretary in restrained and courteous language, such remarks being relevant to the subject under consideration.

1.4.5 When two (2) or more members indicate their desire to speak, the General Secretary shall call upon the member who, in their opinion, first indicated their intention.

1.4.6 The General Secretary shall maintain order and may at any time eject a member for misbehaving, or adjourn a meeting which in their opinion has become disorderly.

1.4.7 The General Secretary shall reject any motion which is not in accordance with the aims and objectives, Constitution, Regulations or Standing Orders of the SUC.

1.4.8 The General Secretary shall interpret matters which are not dealt with in the Standing Orders or Rules of Debate.

1.4.8.1 If any member:

(a) persistently and wilfully obstructs the business of the Council;

(b) is guilty of disorderly conduct;

(c) uses objectionable words and refuses to withdraw such words;
(d) persistently and wilfully refuses to conform to Regulation 1 or any parts thereof; or
(e) persistently and wilfully disregards the authority of the Chair, they may be named by the General Secretary.

1.4.8.2 When any member is named they shall be called upon to stand up in their place and make any explanation or apology they may think fit, and afterwards a motion may be moved - “That such a member be suspended from the service of the Council.” No amendment, adjournment or debate shall be allowed on such motion, which shall immediately be put by the General Secretary.

1.4.8.3 If any member be suspended, their suspension shall be for the remainder of that day’s sitting.

1.4.8.4 When a member has been suspended they shall withdraw from the table and thereafter, during their period of suspension, be deemed absent from the meeting. Such member shall be deemed to be present for the purpose only of including them in the numbers constituting a quorum.

1.4.9 The general secretary may be removed as chair if two-thirds (2/3) majority of the SUC vote to do so.

1.4.10 The President shall act pro-tem should the General Secretary position become vacant and solely for the purpose of calling a special meeting to elect an interim General Secretary from the members of the SUC and by two-thirds (2/3) majority of the SUC. Seven calendar days notice of the meeting shall be provided. Notice shall include the time, location and stated purpose of electing an interim General Secretary. No other business may proceed until the position has been filled.

Section 1.5: Rules of Debate - Motions

1.5.1 All business shall proceed by way of motion which is affirmative in character. If the General Secretary requests any motion shall be put in writing and handed to them, provided that this shall not apply to procedural motions.

1.5.2 Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, any member may move to end debate by stating “That the motion now be put”, if the motion is duly seconded, the General Secretary shall then ask the members to vote to end debate. If carried, the motion or amendment before the meeting shall be put forthwith, without debate or amendment; if lost the debate shall proceed. Such a motion shall not be moved while a member is speaking.

1.5.4 No person shall interrupt another whilst they are speaking except on a point of order or in order to move that the speaker be no longer heard.

1.5.5 Questions shall not be accepted by the General Secretary at any time if a motion has been put.

1.5.6 At any time a member may move “That strict order of debate be followed.” Such motion duly seconded, shall be put to the vote forthwith without debate; if carried, thereafter no member shall, without the permission of the General Secretary, speak more than once to each motion or amendment under discussion. The mover of the motion or amendment shall have the right of reply. The strict order of debate shall proceed once per motion, including amendments. The mover may speak on the introduction of their motion, and has the right to reply. Right of reply shall be allowed to the mover of a substantive amendment and once exercised all discussion on the amendment shall cease.
1.5.7 At any time during the debate, the chair may state, “This is now a formal debate”. Which shall be in effect for the next ten minutes. Each member is entitled to ask one question to either the mover or seconder of the motion or amendment, and the responses should be either yes or no. At the end of the ten minutes, the question shall be called and proceed to a vote. If 2/3 of the voting members abstain from voting the motion shall be carried forward to the next secretariat meeting.

1.5.8 Except as hereinafter provided, any ruling of the General Secretary may be challenged by a motion “That the Council dissents from the Chairs’ ruling.” On such a motion proposed and seconded, the General Secretary shall vacate the Chair. The mover of such a motion shall have the right to speak thereto and the General Secretary to reply. Then the motion shall be put forthwith to the council who will vote on in the motion that “That the General Secretary’s ruling be upheld”. Once the decision is voted on, chair is reinstated.

1.5.9 A motion shall be superseded and lapse by a motion “That Council proceed to the next business” being resolved in the affirmative. The General Secretary at His/her discretion may put such motion without debate.

1.5.10 Any person during the debate may raise a point of order, which must be seeking clarification in regard to the proceedings. The speaker called to order shall cease speaking until the point of order is decided, by the chair. The person raising the point of order shall state it concisely. Then the General Secretary, without further discussion, shall give his/her ruling. The General Secretary’s ruling on a point of order is final. A point of order may be taken with regard to any irregularity in the proceedings but an explanation or contradiction is not a point of order, and is out of order.

1.5.11 Explanations may be accepted at the discretion of the General Secretary.

1.5.12 Any SUC member may move at any time “That the meeting proceed in camera.” Such a motion, duly seconded, shall be put without further debate, and if carried, no minutes shall be taken nor shall the business be discussed outside the meeting. On such a motion being resolved in the affirmative, the General Secretary shall have the power to exclude non-SUC members as they think fit.

1.5.13 A visitor may be given speaking rights applying only to a particular topic provided a motion proposing such is passed by the meeting.

Section 1.6: Rules of Debate - Amendments of Motions

1.6.1 A motion may be amended or withdrawn by the mover with the consent of the seconder; a motion may be withdrawn by the mover without the consent of the seconder provided that the seconder shall have a primary option to move the motion as originally drafted.

1.6.2 Any member proposing an amendment may be required to forward it in writing to the General Secretary. Any motion or amendment not seconded shall not be further debated and shall lapse.

1.6.3 The motion or amendment under discussion may be amended by the deletion, substitution or addition of words, provided that no amendment shall be accepted by the General Secretary which directly negates the motion or amendment under discussion. While an amendment is under discussion, it shall be voted on or removed prior to additional amendments being put forward.

1.6.4 Order of Action

(a) Amendments

(b) Substantive/Amendments

(c) Foreshadowed
then

(d) Substantive/Motions

(e) Foreshadowed/Motions

1.6.5 Providing that foreshadowed amendments and motions have not lapsed due to the substantive motion being resolved in the affirmative, remaining foreshadowed business shall be dealt with in the order it is accepted by the General Secretary.

Section 1.7: Rules of Debate - Recommittal of Motions

1.7.1 Matters decided shall not be again considered within a period of two (2) months unless the SUC receives notice of recommittal containing a motion signed by at least two (2) SUC members. Any motion twice rejected by the council within a period of two (2) months shall not be discussed again for a period of three (3) months from the date of the last rejection.

1.7.2 Notice of recommittal shall enable the person giving such notice to move any motion relative to the recommitted motion at the time for which notice was given. They shall not be compelled to move the recommitted motion.

1.7.3 After notice of recommittal has been received at a meeting the General Secretary shall rule as to whether or not, in the best interests of the Student Union, action should proceed upon a motion that was carried before the time of the recommittal.

1.7.4 After notice of recommittal has been received from a member at a time other than at a meeting, the Secretariat shall rule as to whether or not, in the best interests of the Student Union, action should proceed upon a motion that was carried before the time of the recommittal.

Section 1.8: Rules of Debate - General

1.8.1 Motions with notice must be submitted in writing for inclusion under 1.3.1.i in the Agenda and shall be submitted to the General Secretary seven (7) days before the meeting. Such motions on notice shall be numbered and placed before the meeting in the order in which they have been received by the Secretary.

Section 1.9: Voting

1.9.1 At their discretion, the General Secretary may order a recount of votes and in any case shall do so at the request of any two (2) members of Council, providing that not more than two (2) recounts shall be taken unless a motion of the SUC so directs.

1.9.2 Save as otherwise provided in the Constitution of the SUC, at any meeting each elected SUC representative shall be entitled to exercise one (1) vote.

1.9.3 The General Secretary shall have a casting vote in addition to their representative vote provided that they exercise the right to vote before the count is taken.

1.9.4 Ex-officio members have the right to move or second a motion, speak to it, but not to vote on it.

Section 1.10: Proxies

1.10.1 A member may appoint another SUC member as defined in 5.1 of the Student Union Constitution to attend the meeting and vote instead of that member.

1.10.2 A proxy must be given in writing to the General Secretary twenty-four (24) hours in advance of the meeting.
1.10.2.1 Proxies may be given from members who shall be:
(a) absent from a meeting; or
(b) who expect to be absent at the time when the motion is put.

1.10.2.2 In respect of motions of which notice has been given or foreshadowed motions by a person:
(a) who is present at the time when notice is given, or the motion is foreshadowed; but
(b) who expects to be absent when the motion is put.

Section 1.11: Suspension of Standing Orders

1.11.1 Standing Orders or Rules of Debate may be suspended provided that such motion shall have the concurrence of two-thirds (2/3) of the voting members of the SUC.

Section 1.12: Validity of Voting

1.12.1 Objections of non-compliance with these Regulations, must be made prior to the termination of the next meeting and no motion, amendment, resolution passed, decision made or action taken at a properly convened and constituted meeting of the SUC shall be deemed invalid.

Section 1.13: Circulation of these Regulations

1.13.1 A full copy of these Regulations shall be circulated by the General Secretary of the SUC to all members of the SUC, and to other affiliated bodies.

Section 1.14: Matters Not Dealt With

1.14.1 Any matters not dealt with in the above standing orders shall be ruled on by the Chair.

SECTION 2: SECRETARIAT

Section 2.1: Membership

2.1.1 Pursuant to Section 7 of the Student Union Constitution there shall be a Secretariat of the Student Union Council that shall include the following voting members:

5.13.3.1 the Polling Clerk shall initial each ballot paper which they issue.
5.13.3.2 before handing a ballot paper to any voter, the Polling Clerk shall request a student card to be presented which shall be marked for clear identification;

5.13.3.3 the Polling Clerk may make any reasonable inquiry to establish the identity of any person claiming a vote. Where, for any reason, the eligibility of the person is in doubt, the Polling Clerk shall place the ballot paper in a sealed envelope, setting out the reasons for uncertainty on the outside, and later convey it to the Returning Officer;

5.13.3.4 The Polling Clerk shall, at the request of any voter, issue a fresh ballot paper in place of one spoiled by the voter. Having cancelled the spoilt paper by writing “CANCELLED” or “SPOILT” on the back, the Polling Clerk shall place the paper in a special envelope provided for that purpose and place them into the ballot box.

5.13.3.5 Secure ballot boxes shall be provided and be sealed immediately following the close of voting;

5.13.3.6 At the close of voting on any day, the Polling Clerk shall do with the ballot boxes as ordered by the Returning Officer, who shall take all necessary measures to assure the security of the votes and the orderliness of all proceedings from that time forth until the declaration of the election.

5.13.3.7 The Returning Officer shall be responsible for supplying voting facilities as published. Where through misadventure it is not possible to establish facilities exactly as advertised the Returning Officer may issue such instructions as would afford those affected an opportunity to cast their vote.

5.13.3.8 Each candidate shall be entitled to have present throughout the counting of the votes one scrutineer (who is not a candidate), nominated in writing to the Returning Officer;

5.13.3.9 The Returning Officer may announce a time for examination of postal vote declarations and the doubtful votes conveyed by Polling Clerks, and in the presence of such scrutineers as desire to attend, determine whether these votes will be included. Where a scrutineer wishes to dispute a decision, the challenge shall be made in writing and handed to the Returning Officer or authorised person.

5.13.3.10 Once the ballot boxes have been opened, the Returning Officer shall forthwith cause to be counted the first preferences in each election conducted. Scrutineers may ask to see any ballot papers and may (as elsewhere in this section) challenge in writing the inclusion or exclusion of any ballot paper but shall not physically handle or interfere with any paper nor cause any undue noise, disturbance or obstruction during the counting of the votes on pain of being excluded from the counting room for persistent contravention.

5.13.3.11 A ballot paper shall be accepted as formal if it has been initialled by the Returning Officer or Polling Clerk and has a clear indication of the voter’s first preference by having a number one written next to the candidate. Where instead of numbers a voter has used ticks crosses or other markings the vote shall be informal.

5.13.3.12 Where in the course of a scrutiny a duplication or omission occurs on a ballot paper before the number opposite the candidate next in the order of the voter’s preference, the paper shall be set aside without further transfer being made.

5.13.3.13 The Returning Officer shall devise a method of clearly labelling parcels of votes transferred at each count.

5.15.1 The Returning Officer shall announce the voting figures:

(i) on at least one (1) SUC noticeboard at each campus within twenty-four (24) hours of the counting of the votes being completed;

(ii) in the next issue of Catalyst and Don't Panic provided that the figures shall not be so published until the expiry of five days from the completion of the counting of votes.
5.15.2 A Candidate or scrutineer may in writing, ask the Returning Officer for a re-count up to forty eight (48) hours after the completion of the counting of the votes and not thereafter. The petition setting out the grounds for a re-count must include allegations of specific error or wrong doing.

5.15.3 The Returning Officer shall, in writing within twenty four (24) hours of such request, either set out any reasons why a re-count should not occur or announce the time of starting the re-count.

Section 5.16 Disputes

5.16.1 Pursuant to section 11.2.14 of the RMIT Student Union Constitution “Any claim of a breach of the Election Regulations must be presented to the Returning Officer within five (5) days of the declaration of the poll, must be in writing and must be supported by at least two (2) members of the Student Union.” The objection must clearly state the facts and grounds for the objection and must ask for some specific action to be taken.

5.16.2 Upon receipt of a claim, the Returning Officer has three (3) options available to them:

(i) Dismiss the matter;
(ii) Uphold the complaint; or
(iii) Convene a meeting of the SUC Appeals Committee to hear the appeal.

5.16.3 If the Returning Officer finds that a Candidate has committed any offence against, or has disregarded or not complied with any Election Regulation or procedure, the Returning Officer may institute one or any of the following disciplinary actions after they have notified the Candidate in question an opportunity to state their case:

(i) Warn the Candidate;
(ii) Withdraw the facilities of the SUC and/or RMIT Union and their media from the Candidate;
(iii) Disqualify the Candidate from the Election in question;
(iv) Declare the election void;
(v) Order a new election.
(vi) Refer the matter to the SUC Appeals Committee
(vii) In the case of teams the provisions above, (i) to (vi) still apply.

5.16.4 In case of any dispute regarding Election Regulations, procedures or conduct of Candidates/Campaigners, the Returning Officer shall be the arbiter. Further appeal may be made to the SUC Appeals Committee.

5.16.5 In the event that a Candidate lodges an appeal against a decision of the Returning Officer, the Returning Officer must call a meeting of the SUC Appeals Committee within twenty four (24) hours and that meeting must take place within forty eight (48) hours of the complaint being lodged.

Section 5.17 SUC appeals committee

5.17.1 Membership and appointment

5.17.1.1 There shall be a SUC Appeals Committee
5.17.1.2 The SUC Appeals Committee shall consist of three (3) members appointed by the SUC.
5.17.1.3 A person may only be appointed as a member of the SUC Appeals Committee if they have appropriate legal qualifications and experience.

5.17.1.4 Members are proscribed from having been an enrolled student at RMIT for a period of five (5) years preceding their appointment.

5.17.1.5 The SUC Appeals Committee shall be appointed for the following year by the SUC once the declaration of the poll has occurred. In the event of a vacancy subsequent to this appointment the SUC shall appoint a member to the Committee.

5.17.1.6 Each member remains a member of the SUC Appeals Committee until he or she

a) Resigns

b) Becomes unable to act

c) Or is removed by the SUC.

5.17.1.7 Members of the SUC Appeals Committee may not be removed during the election period

5.17.2 Powers and duties

5.17.2.1 The SUC Appeals Committee shall hear appeals and determine disputes under the Regulations and Constitution of the SU. Subject to the RMIT Student Union Constitution and Regulations the SUC Appeals Committee may regulate proceedings as they see fit.

5.17.2.2 Any candidate may make an appeal to the SUC Appeals Committee, under the terms of section 5.16.1 Disputes of these Regulations

5.17.2.3 If the SUC Appeals Committee finds that a Candidate has committed improper practices the election of a successful Candidate may be declared void.

5.17.2.4 No finding by the SUC Appeals Committee shall bar or prejudice any action by the Disciplinary Committee of the University for any illegal or improper practice or offence against disregard of non-compliance with the Election Regulations.

5.17.2.5 The SUC Appeals Committee shall not declare that any person returned as elected was not duly elected, or declare any Election void:

(a) On the grounds of any illegal or improper practice or offence against, disregard of or non-compliance with the Election Regulations by any person other than the Candidate and without his/her knowledge or authority; or

(b) On the grounds specified in Sub-Clause hereof unless the SUC Appeals Committee is satisfied that the result of the Election was likely to be affected, and that it is just and equitable either that the Candidate should be declared not to be duly elected or that the Election should be declared void.

5.17.3 Process

5.17.3.1 In the event that a Candidate lodges an appeal against a decision of the Returning Officer, the Returning Officer must call a meeting of the SUC Appeals Committee within twenty four (24) hours and that meeting must take place within forty eight (48) hours of the complaint being lodged. However a meeting that occurs after this time may still rule on a complaint.

5.17.3.2 The SUC Appeals Committee may meet by telephone if necessary.

5.17.3.3 Meetings of the SUC Appeals Committee shall be in camera.

5.17.3.4 Decisions of the SUC Appeals Committee must be made by at least two members of the Committee.

5.17.3.5 Candidates shall be entitled to appear before the SUC Appeals Committee to present their case, and are entitled to be assisted by one other student. No further representation or assistance shall be allowed unless the Appeals Committee decides that without representation the candidate will be unable to fairly put their case.

5.17.3.6 The SUC Appeals Committee must decide questions of fact on the balance of probabilities.

5.17.3.7 Proceedings of the SUC Appeals Committee, other than its formal decisions, are confidential and may not be reported. Decisions of the SUC Appeals Committee shall be written and posted by the Returning Officer in the form of Official Publicity within 24 hours of a decision being made. Such decisions shall set out the facts.

5.17.3.8 Decisions of the SUC Appeals Committee are final and binding. Refusal to obey or implement a decision of the SUC Appeals Committee shall result in immediate disciplinary action.

Section 5.18 Forbidden Practices

5.18.1 No Candidate or Candidate’s representative shall in any manner whatsoever alter, deface, damage, interfere with or remove any election material which belongs to another Candidate. Any person found so doing shall be barred from any further participation in the Election (with the exception of actually voting).

5.18.2 In addition to these Regulations, Candidates advertising shall be restricted only by normal University Regulations.

5.18.3 No person shall cause damage or defacement to any public or private property inside or outside the University for the promotion of any Candidate(s) in any election of the Student Union Council. For the purpose of this section, damage or defacement shall be taken to include stickers and posters and chalking that cannot be removed with water on the inside or outside of buildings, steps, handrails, footpaths, trees, poles, bins, signs or any part of the University and its surrounds not specifically set aside for such purposes.

5.18.4 No candidate nor candidate’s assistant shall publish, print, publicise or disseminate any electoral material without the authorisation of the Returning Officer.

5.18.5 (a) A person shall not engage in any dishonest practice in relation to an election.

(b) A person shall not in relation to an election, print, publish, verbalise or distribute, or cause, permit or authorise to be printed, published or distributed, any matter or thing containing a statement:

(i) that is untrue; or

(ii) that is, or is likely to be, misleading or deceptive;
(iii) that is discriminatory, sexist, racist, homophobic, militaristic or,
(iv) that contravenes SUC policy.

(c) A person shall not make or publish any false statement in relation to the personal character or conduct of a Candidate.

(d) A person shall not:
(i) vote more than once in the same election; or
(ii) record a vote to which they are not entitled.

(e) A person shall not interfere with any ballot paper without the consent of the Returning Officer.

(f) A person shall not hinder the Returning Officer, Deputy Returning Officer, Poll Clerk or any other person appointed to assist the Returning Officer in the execution of his or her duties.

(g) A person shall not engage in behaviour that is intimidatory, aggressive, threatening or harassing towards any other person(s).

5.18.6 Should it be proved that any Candidate or Candidate’s representative has deliberately disseminated defamatory and/or slanderous information, then that Candidate shall be subject to disciplinary action (as per section 5.19 of these regulations).

5.18.7 No person shall display any poster, distribute leaflets or solicit votes within an area designated by the Returning Officer, of a polling booth or impede without just cause the conduct of the election.

5.18.8 No candidate nor candidate’s assistant shall make use of resources of the SUC, RMIT Union, or RMIT University without the prior approval of the Returning Officer.

5.18.9 No candidate shall distribute or broadcast any material in relation to the election without the prior authorisation of the Returning Officer.

Section 5.19 Discipline

5.19.1 Any Candidate who knows of and consents to or commits or aids or abets a breach of this section shall be liable to be disqualified from the election and from any further election to any position on or any office of the SUC for a period of eighteen (18) months following such breach.

5.19.2 Any person who commits or aids or abets such a breach shall be liable to be disqualified from any election to any position or any office of the SUC for a period of eighteen (18) months following such a breach.

Section 5.20 Defamation

The Student Union does not indemnify any student for defamation in an election.

Section 5.21 Indemnity

The Student Union Council shall indemnify the Returning Officers and appointees in relation to any action as a result of performing their duties in accordance with the RMIT Student Union Constitution and these regulations.
Section 5.22 Definitions and abbreviations:

Academic day: means a day on which classes are conducted by the University in the TAFE and Higher Education sector. Academic Days shall not include Saturdays, Sundays or any day which is University or Public Holiday.

ARO: Assistant Returning Officer

Constitution: Means the RMIT Student Union Constitution

CSC: Campus Student Council

Days: Shall refer to all week days including Saturday & Sunday

DRO: Deputy Returning Officer

Each Campus: Shall refer to the:
- City Higher Education Campus
- Northern Campus
- TAFE Campus

Election Official: The Returning Officer, Deputy Returning Officer(s), Assistant Returning Officer(s) and Polling Clerks and any other person nominated by the Returning Officer.

Electoral Office: Means the Office of the Returning Officer as defined by the Returning Officer on their appointment

E-mail “bombing” is characterised by abusers repeatedly sending an identical e-mail message to a particular address.

E-mail “spamming” is a variant of bombing; it refers to sending e-mail to hundreds or thousands of users (or to lists that expand to that many users). Email spamming can be made worse if recipients reply to the email, causing all the original addressees to receive the reply. It may also occur innocently, as a result of sending a message to mailing lists and not realising that the list explodes to thousands of users, or as a result of an incorrectly set-up responder message.

E-mail “spoofing” E-mail bombing/spamming may be combined with e-mail “spoofing” (which alters the identity of the account sending the e-mail), making it more difficult to determine who the e-mail is actually coming from.

First day of an election: Refers to the first day of voting

NUS: National Union Of Students

Polling: Refers to the period in which official voting is taking place.

Publications of the Student Union: Any material produced or disseminated through Student Union channels. This includes all forms of broadcasting, printing and production.

Receipt: Upon physical acceptance of the material by the Returning Officer.

RO: Returning Officer

Secretariat: Means the Student Union Council secretariat as defined in section 8 of the RMIT Student Union Constitution

SUC RO: Refers to the SUC Returning Officer who may be appointed for the purposes of conducting by-elections

SUC: Student Union Council

APPENDIX 2  MODEL CONSTITUTION - AFFILIATED CLUBS AND SOCIETIES

1. Name

The name of the Club/Society/Association shall be:

2. Aims and Objectives

3. Membership

   a) Membership shall be open to all students of RMIT
   b) Two (2) Office bearers shall be members of the RMIT Student Union
   c) Limited membership shall be open to staff and non-students
   d) Student union members will be given 50% discounts for club membership and at least 20% discount to club events.

4. Office bearers

The Club/Society/Association shall be governed by a Committee of office bearers that shall be elected at the Annual General Meeting. The Committee shall consist of the President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer and other portfolio committee members as deemed by the club membership.

5. Powers of the office bearers

   a) The office bearers shall have control over the finances and activities of the club.
   b) The Committee is at all times bound by the decisions of a club general meeting. Any Committee decision may be overturned by a club general meeting.

6. Annual General Meeting

There shall be one Annual General Meeting every calendar year, which shall be held during the academic period. At the meeting:

   a) written reports shall be presented by the executive;
   b) ratification of the club’s constitution;
c) financial report will be presented;
d) new office bearers will be elected; and
e) Other business and other motions may be moved.

7. Other meetings

a) the club can have general meetings throughout the year.
b) If fifteen members, or one third of the membership, whichever is smaller, should petition the committee for a general meeting, such a meeting must be held within fifteen academic days, at a date set by the committee.

8. Quorum

a) At an Annual General Meeting, a minimum of 8 members or 1/3 of the membership.
b) At a committee meeting there shall be 50% of the elected committee members plus one.

9. Notice of meetings

The Committee shall be required to give at least five academic days notice of a General Meeting or Annual General Meeting. Such notice must, as a minimum, be email notification.

10. Voting

a) Voting in all meetings shall be democratic, with a simple majority sufficing for the passage of a motion. All tied motions are lost. No proxy voting shall be permitted.
b) Constitutional changes require a simple majority of members voting at a Special General Meeting or Annual General Meeting, and take effect from the end of the meeting. These constitutional motions must be presented in writing to the committee at least five academic days before the meeting, and notice of these shall be given to the membership. Constitutional changes shall be approved by the Clubs and Societies Officer (student) before they are presented to a general meeting.

11. Dismissal or expulsion from club

a) The process for dismissing a Committee member can begin with a motion of the committee, or a petition bearing the names of at least ten members of the club. At the next general meeting or Annual General Meeting, a motion shall be put to dismiss the Committee member, provided that at least five academic days notice has been given to the membership and to the member concerned in writing. If this passed by a two thirds majority, that committee position will become vacant and a new election held immediately. The committee member to be impeached will be given at least seven minutes to speak before the vote is taken.
b) The process to expel a club member can begin with a motion of the committee or a petition with the names of at least ten club members. The procedure is the same as for the impeachment except that the result is the voiding of the person’s membership. No member may be expelled on the ground of race, sex, religion, sexual orientation or political views.

12. Finance

a) Records of all club income and expenditure (including all receipts) must be kept by the treasurer.
b) All club funds must be lodged in a bank account nominated by the Clubs and Societies Officer of the student union.

13. Responsibility/Disclaimer

a) RMIT Student Union accepts no responsibility for actions or decisions taken by a club committee and office bearers shall be deemed responsible for all decisions made for or on behalf of the club.

b) The RMIT Student Union accepts no responsibility for any financial debts or liabilities incurred by the club.
